This notice is not for tax reporting purposes and is being provided for informational purposes in order to comply with the requirements of Section 19 (“Section 19”) of the Investment Fund Act of 1940, as amended. Section 19, among other things, requires an investment company to accompany dividend payments with a notice if any part of that payment is from a source other than accumulated net investment income, not including profits or losses from the sale of securities or other properties. Each shareholder will receive a Form 1099-DIV following the end of the 2023 calendar year, which will reflect the actual amounts of income, capital gain and return of capital paid by the Fund. Such amounts are taxable in calendar year 2023 and reportable on your 2023 federal and other income tax returns.
